Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 3. to Saturday December 7. 1734.

Warsaw, November 25, N. S.

ON the 21st in the Evening, the Elector of Saxony and the Electress his Consort, arrived here, and this Day he made his Publick Entry into this City, and has taken up his Residence in the Castle that belongs to the Kings of Poland.

Hague, Dec. 14, N. S. We learn by Letters from the Austrian Netherlands arrived this Day, that the Princess of Orange landed at Calais on Thursday last, about Three in the Afternoon, and her Royal Highness is expected here in a few Days with the Prince her Consort. The Council of State presented Yesterday to the States General the State of War for next Year, which is the same in Substance as the last, no Mention being made in the Petition of any Augmentation of Forces. It was this Day communicated to the States of Holland, and sent to the other respective Provinces for their Consent. The States of Holland, who separated last Saturday, resumed this Day their Assembly. The Commissioners of the Admiralty are gone home. This Morning we had Advices here, that the Garrison of Capua had offered to surrender on the 21st of last Month, if they were not relieved within seven Days.
